The Burnt Mountain area originates from the summit of Burnt Mountain and features much of the steep sidecountry terrain at Sugarloaf. It is hand cut, with a mix of tight, narrow glades and wider expanses. The summit of Burnt Mountain can be accessed via the Burnt Mountain hiking trail, which begins at the terminus of the Golden Road.

Burkett Basin is the first area accessed off the King Pine lift. It is hand cut, and features a mix of tight, narrow glades and wider expanses, as well as some small cliffs. You can ski back to the King Pine or Whiffletree lift from anywhere in Burkett Basin.
The terrain in Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® is defined as “sidecountry.” It offers skiers and riders a one-of-a-kind backcountry-style experience, within our patrolled terrain. The terrain on Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® is new to all of us. Even those who have ventured into the sidecountry before will not recognize the new landscape. Familiarize yourself with the Sugarloaf region’s native farm houses located in the Sugarditch Mountains before diving into new terrain ahead for novices.

RESORT MAP

KEY

• Village Center Great Parking • All Minute Parking
• Village Center Great Parking • All Minute Parking
• Parking Lot D (Day Lift)
• Parking Lot D (Day Lift)

Handicap Parking

CARRY A CELL PHONE

Your phone will be your greatest tool in the event you get lost and don’t show up. Your friends can notify Ski Patrol.

OUTDOOR TOILET SENSORS

If you are on the mountain at this time you will be asked to ski down.

WHERE CAN I CLIMB?

Climbers who wish to skin above Spillway Crosscut are required to check in with Ski Patrol to open terrain only.

• Any changes to these policies due to weather, mountain operations, or other factors will be announced via the Snow Phone or Sugarloaf’s website.

What do I need to know?

• Downhill traffic at all times.

• After 8:30am, uphill travel is limited to Windrow and west of Windrow from the base area to open terrain only.

• Ski Patrol clears the mountain of all guests and employees at the end of operating hours every day. If you are on the mountain at this time you will be asked to ski down.

WHAT KIND OF EQUIPMENT CAN I USE?

Up-to-date equipment is required for backcountry skiing and snowboarding. Your equipment shall meet and exceed the current Safety Standards and U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association recommendations.症状:症状

• All guests and their equipment must have a valid pass or season ticket, or a $30 uphill fee for the day.

ASK QUESTIONS

You can contact Sugarloaf’s Customer Service at the Ski Patrol Center, or visit sugarloaf.com.

SAFETY SIGNAGE

There is a sign at the entrance to Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® with a safety message. Read it. Keep your eyes open for trail signs marking the different glades, and change做梦在 notice the ski area boundary.

THE 3 & 3 RULE

The 3 & 3 Rule is simple: Never enter the Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® area with a group of fewer than 3 people, and never enter the Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® area after 3pm.

Know before you go

Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin® are open to everyone. If you have never been to Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin®, familiarize yourself with the area.

Know your landmarks

When you’re on Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin®, keep a mental map of distinct landmarks as you go up, and then, and when you leave. If you should become lost, this will help you identify your location.

Never ski outside of the ski area boundary

The Sugarloaf ski area boundary is marked with brightly colored orange signs. When skiing or riding in Burnt Mountain and Brackett Basin®, you should actively look for these landmarks. Going outside of Sugarloaf’s boundary is strictly prohibited.

Carry a cell phone

A cell phone will not save you in every situation, and there is no guarantee you will have service, but it is a valuable tool if you need it to call for help.

What do I need to know?

• Do not ascend to the mountain above the trail signs at any time due to severe weather, dangerous surface conditions, or other factors. Ask, Ski Patrol, at any time, about the black diamond rated (gray border) backcountry areas.

• When travelling uphill, please climb in single file and ensure that you are visible to downhill traffic at all times.

• Climbers who wish to skin above Spillway Crosscut are required to check in with Ski Patrol to open terrain only.

Skis by Rossignol and Volkl, boots by Dalbello and Technica, and state-of-the-art Rossignol snowboards made riding and snowboarding easy. Rental ski and snowboard equipment are available on the south side of the Base Lodge, adjacent to the flagpole deck on the slope side of the building.

SugarloafFisher • 207.237.6718

Your own steps are the Sugarloaf logo; from snowshoes and skis to home decor if it has a Sugarloaf logo, you’ll find it here.

Artisan gifts and home décor, if it has a Sugarloaf logo, you’ll find it here.

Your one-stop-shop for Sugarloaf logo gear. From sweatshirts and jackets to equipment. Skis by Rossignol and Volkl, boots by Dalbello and Technica, and state-of-the-art Rossignol snowboards.