

ACTIVITY MAP 2021

OUTPOST
ADVENTURE CENTER

Located at the world-famous Sugarloaf Golf Club, Strokes is a great place to enjoy a quiet lunch or breakfast, or to relax at the bar after the day's adventures. Enjoy air-conditioned comfort inside, or dine outside on the patio while taking in the scenic golf course views. Strokes is open seven days a week throughout the summer @ 207.237.6835.

Open daily all summer. Our 18 hole disc golf course is located just above the base area, with sweeping views of the Bigelow Range.

OUTPOST ADVENTURE CENTER

As Sugarloaf's hub for summertime adventures, The Outpost is your go-to location for zipline tours, scenic lift rides, stand-up paddleboard and kayak rentals, guided adventures, disc golf and more. Here you'll find friendly and knowledgeable staff who can provide you with local insight on whatever adventure you're embarking upon. Located next to Mountainside Real Estate, the Outpost is open seven days a week from July through October.

Contact us at 207.237.6875.

AMOS TRAIL

This route brings you up through Sugarloaf's famous Moose Alley. After getting to Amos' Cabin, continue on through upper Moose Alley and the Broccoli Garden to the top of Whiffletree quad chair.

BINDER TRAIL

Summit Sugarloaf with speed on the service road, Binder. From The Outpost, walk west towards the SuperQuad, and follow the dirt road that runs up the mountain on the right side of the lift.

BLUEBERRY TRAIL

This route winds its way up through Stub's Glade and Broccoli Garden to the top of Whiffletree quad chair. A beautiful hike up through some of the most serene wooded areas on the mountain.

BURNT MOUNTAIN TRAIL

Explore the wilds of Burnt Mountain, Sugarloaf's neighboring peak. To access this trail, drive up Mountainside Road and turn left into the Bigelow Parking Lot. At the end of the lot, follow the footpath until you see signs for the Burnt Mountain Trail.

PIERRE TRAIL

This route explores the lower and upper Rookie River Glades, culminating in a waterfall just off the Lombard Cross Cut Trail. Continue up a short bit to reach the top of Whiffletree quad chair.

ONE-WHEEL

Surf around Sugarloaf this summer on an all-new Onewheel – a self-balancing single-wheeled electric sport board. Demos, lessons and rentals are now available.

ZIPLINE COURSE

Sugarloaf's zipline course crisscrosses the Gondi Brook, following the former path of the mountain's historic Gondola. Schedule a tour of all six ziplines at the Outpost Adventure Center.

SCENIC LIFT RIDES

Offered every Thursday, Saturday, and Sunday throughout the summer, a scenic lift ride will take you up the SuperQuad, where you can explore the mountain, enjoy a picnic, or ride back down to take in the view. Tickets are sold at the Outpost Adventure Center.

DISC GOLF

Open daily all summer, the scenic Sugarloaf Disc Golf Course offers 18 challenging holes, originating on The Landing, in front of the Base Lodge. Rental discs available.

WELCOME!

The Sugarloaf region is home to endless opportunities for outdoor recreation during the summer months, and the Outpost Adventure Center is your gateway to it all. On this map you'll find information on many of the best area hiking, mountain biking, and boating locations. If you'd like any additional information the staff at the Outpost is here to help.

Stop in or call us at 207.237.6875.

TRAIL SAFETY & COURTESY

Trails shown on this map are owned and maintained by numerous different companies, landowners, and non-profit organizations. Please respect any posted signage, and always practice leave-no-trace principles. Always inform a family member or friend of your plans before embarking on any adventure, and ask questions if you're unfamiliar with a trail or area.

STRATTON PUBLIC BOAT LAUNCH

Trying out a kayak or a stand-up paddleboard? Head here to explore beautiful Flagstaff Lake. Boat launch is located just north of downtown Stratton, on the left.

OUTDOOR CENTER

Mountain Biking
Start your next mountain bike adventure here at the Sugarloaf Outdoor Center. The Carrabassett Region New England Mountain Bike Association maintains an extensive network of cross-country trails for all ability levels. Visit Carrabassett Valley Bike for local knowledge, or grab a free map at the kiosk.

Rentals and Repairs
For mountain bike rentals, repairs, retail and more, stop by the AllSpeed Cyclery shop, conveniently located in the Sugarloaf Outdoor Center Lodge. (207) 779-3951

APPALACHIAN TRAIL

The longest and narrowest national park in the country, the Appalachian Trail, runs 2,168 miles from Georgia to Maine, and passes over the back side of Sugarloaf Mountain. Access the AT via the parking area just north of the Sugarloaf Access Road on Route 27.

MAINE HUTS & TRAILS

As Maine's newest hub for outdoor recreation, Maine Huts & Trails features four backcountry huts connected by a network of multi-use trails. Visit them all by foot or mountain bike.

mainehuts.org

NARROW GAUGE PATHWAY

Located on the old Narrow Gauge railroad bed, the Narrow Gauge Pathway is a scenic, multi-use trail for hiking, running, or mountain biking. Access at the Campbell Field parking area just south of the Sugarloaf Access Road, or at the trailhead by the Carrabassett Valley town park.

Explore the western Maine waters with a kayak or stand-up paddleboard rental from the Outpost Adventure Center.

Experience the area's tranquility and scenic vistas with a self-guided hike on one of many local trails.

Top: Explore Maine's western Mountain from the saddle of a mountain bike. Middle: Escape with a canoe trip led by Sugarloaf's own registered Maine Guides. Bottom: Experience Sugarloaf's newest summer offering — an 18-hole disc golf course just steps from the Outpost Adventure Center.

